CLASS 29—ANTIQUES & COLLECTIBLES

- Antiques must be at least 50 years old, unless otherwise specified
- Exhibitors may not enter more than two entries in each section
- Entries to be judged on condition & presentation, not just age
- A tab with historical interest & approximate age of entry would be appreciated but is not necessary
- In fairness to all exhibitors, dealers in antiques will not be eligible to enter
- Only the Director(s) in charge will be allowed near the exhibits
- All entry tags must be securely tied or taped to the articles

NOTES: 1. We will do our utmost to return all antiques in the condition in which they are submitted, however all antiques are exhibited at the owner's risk.
2. We suggest using clear plastic sleeves to display items in Sections 1, 2 & 8. The sleeves provide a surface to attach your entry tag without damaging the items exhibited.

“Sad” is an Old English word for “solid,” and the term “sad iron” is often used to distinguish the largest and heaviest of flat irons, usually 5 to 9 pounds.
